

“Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, caring, committed people can change the world; indeed, it is the only thing that ever has.”

- Margaret Mead

The ESA Foundation’s “Scholarship Brochure” series honors those who have provided, or are honored by an endowed scholarship. This series provides a link between the student recipients and this prestigious group – who are committed to positive change for the world.

The ESA Foundation is a 501(c)3 public foundation established in 1970 and recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as an organization exclusively for charitable and educational purposes. It is a non-profit and tax-exempt organization pledged to the development of philanthropic activities of volunteers, providing assistance to established programs that serve human needs. The ESA Foundation envisions a future world community working together to assist those in need, educating those who seek to learn, and assisting those who strive to improve the quality of their lives or the lives of others.

[ESA International is an organization founded in 1929 and is a premier leadership and service organization bringing volunteers together to pursue programs and projects that make a positive difference to the world community. It is dedicated to developing confidence, competence, and career opportunities for the members. ESA promotes education, service, and association through programs focused on personal development and leadership training.]

MEMORIAL ENDOWMENT

MAJORIE J. HAMRICK MEMORIAL ENDOWMENT

Judging Criteria “A” – (100 points)

Weighted evenly to Financial need and Scholastic Ability.

10 pts – Character

20 pts – Leadership

10 pts – Service

30 pts – Financial Need

30 pts – Scholastic Ability

Special criteria: Washington State student going into work with the

The Marjorie J. Hamrick Memorial Endowment was established by Holli Neigel in memory of her mother the year Holli was installed as Washington State President of the Washington State Council of ESA International in 1989-1990.

Marjorie served as Washington State Council President in 1963-1964. While a busy mother of one-year old twin girls and a six-year old daughter, she
International and on many philanthropic endeavors.

Marjorie believed we should always be of help to those less fortunate and instilled this attitude in her girls. This specially designed scholarship will continue the tradition for providing unselfish service to others.

The friends and members of the Washington State Council of ESA International have established and/or support several ESA Foundation endowments for students:

Washington State Endowment
Scholarship, Phyllis Shoemaker
Memorial Scholarship, Marjorie J.
Hamrick Memorial Endowment, Dorothy and Jim Meade Endowment, and Lynn & Rich Hughes Family Endowment.

The ESA Foundation Scholarship program began in 1977. Over 100 scholarships are awarded annually to students across the United States and Internationally who meet the criteria of the individual endowment scholarships.

The Scholarship program operates through volunteer services with the exception of the audit performed by Sample & Bailey CPA, PC, Ft.
Collins, Colorado.

Applications are reviewed and processed by the State Counselor and a Regional Scholarship Committee, with a final review by the Scholarship Coordinators who submit them for final judging to judges throughout the United States who are selected from education and business professionals, who are not members of the ESA Foundation.
