

Frances C. Kilgore Scholarship

The Frances C. Kilgore Scholarship was established by Frances Kilgore in 1990. Its special criterion is for any music major (If no music major applies it will be awarded to a teaching major) in any location. The first scholarship was presented in 1991.

Judging Criteria A: This scholarship is weighted evenly to Financial Need and Scholastic Ability: Scoring 100 points, the distribution is 10 points for Character, 20 points for Leadership, 10 points for Service, 30 points for Financial Need and 30 points for Scholastic Ability.

The History for this Endowment is under construction and will be posted as soon as it is completed. Thank – you for understanding.

(ESA International is a Women's organization founded in 1929. Epsilon Sigma Alpha International (ESA) is a premier leadership and service organization that brings volunteers together to pursue programs and projects that make a positive difference locally, nationally and internationally. It is dedicated to developing confidence, competence, and career opportunity for each and every member; ESA promotes education, service, and association through programs that focus on personal development and leadership training. The ESA Foundation is a 501 C 3 public foundation established in 1970 and recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as an organization exclusively for charitable and educational purposes. It is a non-profit and tax-exempt organization pledged to develop philanthropic activities of volunteers, provide assistance to established programs that serve human need, and produce new programs that improve the quality of life. A major source of the ESA Foundation's membership comes from the ESA membership but anyone can join.)
