

Margaret Jesser Memorial Endowment

The Margaret Jesser Memorial Endowment was established by ESA International Headquarters staff of ESA International in 1991. The specific criterion is for any student from any location, any major, attending any college or university. This scholarship was first awarded in 1996.

Judging Criteria A: This scholarship is weighted evenly to Financial Need and Scholastic Ability: Scoring 100 points, the distribution is 10 points for Character, 20 points for Leadership, 10 points for Service, 30 points for Financial Need and 30 points for Scholastic Ability.

The History for this Endowment is under construction and will be posted as soon as it is completed. Thank you for understanding.

(ESA International is a Women's organization founded in 1929. Epsilon Sigma Alpha International (ESA) is a premier leadership and service organization that brings volunteers together to pursue programs and projects that make a positive difference locally, nationally and internationally. It is dedicated to developing confidence, competence, and career opportunity for each and every member; ESA promotes education, service, and association through programs that focus on personal development and leadership training. The ESA Foundation is a 501 C 3 public foundation established in 1970 and recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as an organization exclusively for charitable and educational purposes. It is a non-profit and tax-exempt organization pledged to develop philanthropic activities of volunteers, provide assistance to established programs that serve human need, and produce new programs that improve the quality of life. A major source of the ESA Foundation's membership comes from the ESA membership but anyone can join.)
