

DIANA AWARD

The Distinguished International Academy of Noble Achievement

NOMINATION FORM
(To Recognize "Some Work of Noble Note")

Epsilon Sigma Alpha International, one of the world's most distinctive leadership-service organizations, is looking for a very special person – a person who has unselfishly given of themselves to a remarkable degree in some area of service which benefits others . . . a person who exemplifies in their daily life the wholesome and inspiring qualities of love, faith and courage.

This person may never have been recognized before; they may be serving quietly, unnoticed in your community. Can you help ESA find them?

DIANA AWARD PROCEDURES

This nomination form should be returned to the local ESA DIANA Nominating Committee by the date specified in the accompanying letter. Finalists will be selected by this committee, their names to be announced during the DIANA Award Nominees Week.

A panel of distinguished judges in the community will select the local winner from the finalists. All local DIANA Award recipients will be displayed during the International Convention. No International DIANA Winner will be selected.

Nominees may not be ESA members – active, inactive or honorary

Please complete this Nomination Form in full, using typewriter/computer, except where signature is required. Nominee must sign this form. (Please make a photocopy - the original form will not be returned.)

- Nominee’s Name _____
- Address _____
- Children’s Names & Ages _____
- Nominee’s Occupation or Profession _____
- If employed, Nominee’s business address _____
- Position or title _____
- Schools attended (degrees, honors, etc.): _____
- Civic, Fraternal, Religious Organizations: _____
- Hobbies, Interests _____

+++++

Describe on a separate sheet as concisely as possible why this person deserves the DIANA Award, including the following information:

1. A description of nominee’s current contribution and the benefit received by others as a result.
2. What is remarkable or unique about their contribution.
3. What portion of their time is spent in this endeavor.
4. What type of family involvement do they have with their children and their activities?
5. Other responsibilities (those of most vital concern to them.)
6. What recognition, if any, have they previously received.
7. Whether they receive a salary for their contribution.
8. Past accomplishments, illustrating how their work has progressed.
9. Obstacles and difficult circumstances over which they have triumphed.

FOR NOMINEE: I attest to all facts contained on this form and give permission for the facts to be used for publication. I am willing to be nominated for the DIANA Award. I am not now nor have I ever been affiliated with Epsilon Sigma Alpha International.

Nominee’s Signature _____

Nominated by (List Chapter Name & Number, and President’s name). _____

Return this form to (List name/address of local DIANA Award Chairman). _____